

*You are invited to join us
for "Facing The Lions"*

This conference will provide you with an opportunity to join sisters-in-Christ from the community on a journey through facing life's everyday obstacles.

Mary Ann Bishop— Speaker

Mary Ann's heart's desire is to share with others the greatness of God through teaching, singing and mission activities so that His Kingdom can be advanced. For 15 years she was the teaching leader for the 500 member Myrtle Beach Day Women's Bible Study Fellowship class. She is currently the teaching director for the newly established Community Bible Study Day Women's class of Georgetown. Mary has professionally recorded three CD projects: "Season to Season," "My Father's Heart, and her most recent, "A Song in the Night." Mary Ann is the wife of David Bishop and the mother of two children, Wesley and Elizabeth.

Becky Nissen— Musician

Becky Nissen began private harp study at age seven in Sarasota, FL and placed first in a national Christian teen talent search at age 13. She earned a degree in performance from the University of South Florida in Tampa. Becky has served as principal harpist with orchestras in several states. She is a resident of Myrtle Beach where she maintains an active career as teacher, free lancer performer, principal harpist with the Long Bay Symphony, and music director of Surfside Presbyterian Church.

Women's Fall Conference

November 6-7, 2009

Friday: 7-8:30PM
Saturday: 8AM-12PM

Langston Baptist Church

"Facing the Lions"
Psalm 46

Have you ever wondered if other women go through what I go through? Have you ever felt like you were in trouble or have constant fear. Have you ever prayed that you could escape from your current life circumstances? If so, this conference is for you!

This conference invites all sisters-in-Christ to join in on "Facing the Lions"... to discover life's obstacles for women and how God is our refuge and strength.

You will leave this conference with a renewed understanding of how to face the lions and rejoice in your daily circumstances.

God is our refuge and strength... Psalm 46: 1
